

Audition Information

Welcome to Smiles & Frowns Playhouse

We are happy you have come to audition at this time!! Please read over these guidelines and PARENTS fill out all information on the forms accurately. Thank you!

Children are grouped for auditions by age and time of arrival. Members get priority in this line. We do need to combine ages and genders for the Director's convenience. This means some children may wait longer. Please be patient!

- Fill out the parent and actor forms completely. All contact information should be that of the parent. Please note if your child has a learning disability on the form.
- Bring both forms and your child's picture to the desk and wait in line. Script or audition scenes are available at the desk if the child auditioning wishes to review them while waiting.
- After a short wait your group you will go in to meet the Director. If this is a musical you will also see the Musical Director. There may also be other Playhouse Members in the room. Parents are not allowed to accompany their children into the audition.
- The director will ask you to read from the script; younger children may recite a familiar poem. Try to relax and have fun.
- After your audition, you will be notified if the Director wants to see you again. If you are not asked back it means the Director(s) are satisfied with what you have done. You may leave.
- Smiles & Frowns will notify you by Sunday about the results of your audition. If you are cast, you will be told when to report for rehearsal. There will be a mandatory read thru for cast members and a Parent Meeting on Monday, February 1, 2010 at 7:00 p.m.
- Please note: If your child is cast and is not currently a member, a $15 production fee is required. Fees are to be paid at Parent Meeting. Some scholarships are available; please see the Producer. Memberships may be purchased at the mandatory Parent Meeting. Please see the Producer for information.

You may get a non-speaking part in the play. This is a role for which there is no dialogue but which requires acting talent nonetheless. There is no such thing as a good or bad part....all parts are as good as you can make them. We hope you will share this philosophy.

Parents are required to sign up for committees during the Parent Meeting.

We hope this information has helped you. GOOD LUCK AND HAVE FUN!
